WELCOME

NORTH AMERICAN SOCCER LEAGUE

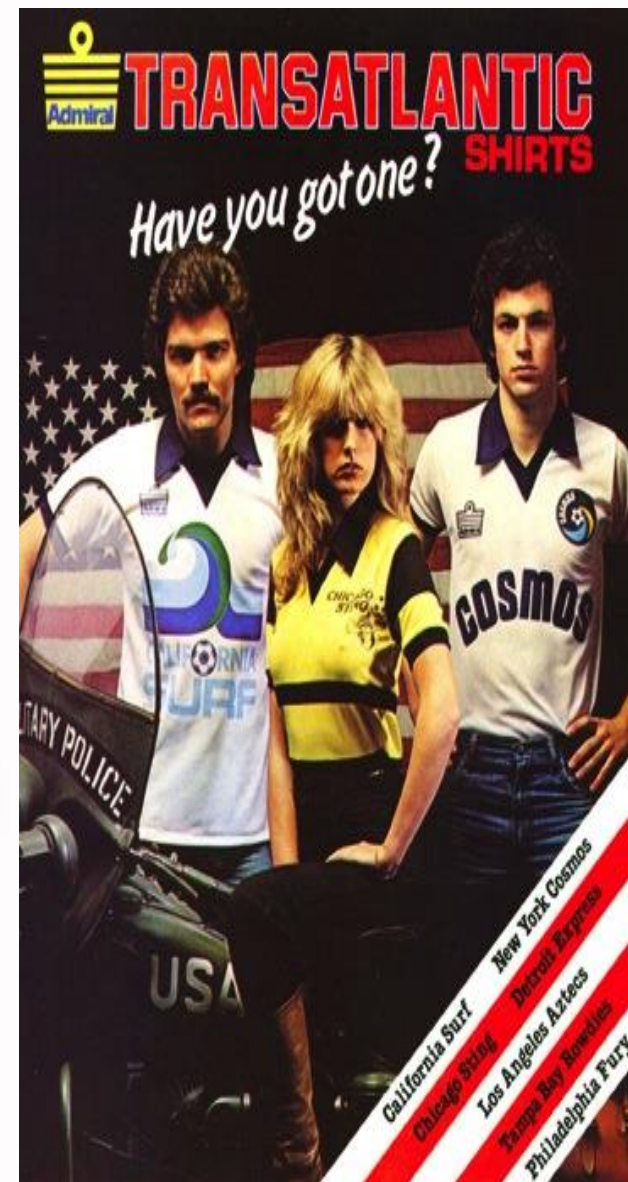

Admiral in the U.S.A.

Admiral produced kits for many NASL & MISL teams in the US during the late 70's and 80's and had a replica licensing deal with most of clubs in those leagues, including the New York Cosmos, LA Aztecs, Seattle Sounders, Tulsa Roughnecks, Tampa Bay Rowdies & Vancouver Whitecaps.

WORN BY CHAMPION'S SINCE 1914

“THE MEN WHO INVENTED SOCCER STYLE”

Story by Richard Benson, Editor, Esquire Magazine May 2013

A controversial Leeds and England manager and a visionary boss of a Midlands textiles company invented the replica kit and changed football and fashion forever.

“Bert Patrick’s Admiral kits helped to change British football into the commercial revenue-generating behemoth it is today”. Says Esquire contributing editor Benson. “And it was, to say the least, instructive to revisit that moment of change, when grown men could be moved to fury by the addition of a single sleeve-stripe to a traditional shirt.”

TRAIN LIKE A PRO!!

"We looked around and some of the bigger companies, they're so big they don't treat you well. It was difficult to get what we really wanted. Admiral is substantially cheaper and the experience of buying product has so far been superior to anything I've experienced."
